David Bearden Is Teaching a Class On Spiritual Fitness in the Auditorium

SPIRITUAL
FITNESS
With all the emphasis on Physical Fitness

Where's the emphasis on Spiritual Fitness?
But what do we mean by "Spiritual,"
And how do we gauge fitness or produce it?

For Fathers

May all Fathers seek to imitate the Fatherhood of God! These kind of fathers are desperately needed.

“Be imitators of God as dearly loved children...”
Ephesians 5.11

It is a humbling, and high calling. But God does not ask us to do something that we cannot do.

To fathers, who know their own weaknesses, failures and sins, seek to know God, the Father who forgives, blesses and restores. It is not about perfection, rather devotion.

A father who sacrifices with self-giving love.
A father who blesses his children and grandchildren.

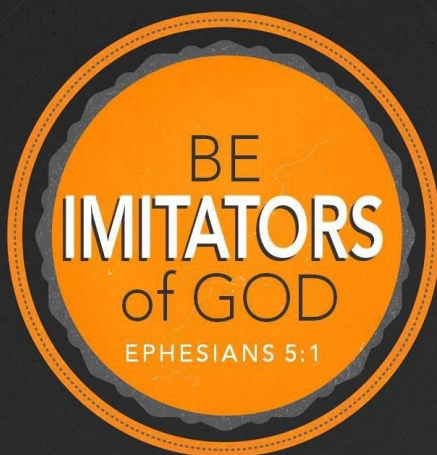

A father who is vulnerable and present.
A father who bows his knees before the God, the Father.

A father who does not provoke their children.

A father who loves their mother.

It's all in Ephesians about who God is and how he acts in the church and world.

May God, the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you love, with faithfulness.
Eph 6.23a (NLT)
