The Night of Casseroles is a week early in November due to the Thanksgiving Holiday. On Thursday, 11/20, have your casseroles dropped off by 4:45. Stay & help distribute them starting at 5:00 until they are all gone.

Another beautiful FALL morning! It's like the earth is quiet before the LORD! Even the creatures are still waiting for just the right time to begin their day. So thankful for morning's like this. Stillness is essential for our souls. Busyness works against trust and gratitude if there is not stillness.

"I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with its mother; my soul is like a weaned child that is with me" (Psalm 131.2). What an image to ponder!

If I am not intentional about stillness, my soul shrivels in the pressures of life. Going faster and doing more becomes an addiction. A rhythm of stillness keeps things in perspective.

When the Psalmist says, "Be still and know that I am God" (Psalm 46.10), it is an admonition in the context of worry about so many things (climate change, global crisis, political angst, etc). Yes. It is so relevant!

Lord, thank you for such still mornings—if only for a few minutes to put my soul at rest and life in perspective before your goodness and faithfulness. In the name of Jesus, who rose a great while before day to be with you (Mark 1.35).

Amen! Blessings, GDK

Thanksgiving Potluck

23 November

FOLLOWING MORNING WORSHIP

When our sister, Susie Barnes, passed away Craig wanted to invite everyone to a meal to share some of her favorite foods. We have included a list of some her favorite foods and several of her recipes. We encourage you to make one of Susie's favorite foods. We will have little pumpkins available at the potluck for you to lay beside your dish to indicate it was one of her favorites.

Let's eat, laugh, and be thankful!
