Patriotic Holidays

I fly the flag proudly. I believe in all things it represents and the sacrifices that made us a nation. I want God to bless America! AND, the world as well.

This past couple of weeks watching FIFA games and the nations that have come to DFW, I was reminded that God's promise to Abraham is that all nations would be blessed through him and his descendants. One language until this: "And they said to one another, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower (Babel) with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves..."

(Gen 11.4a). It is self-defeating to live as blessed people and make a name for ourselves. In fact, it is the epitome of arrogance. And arrogance, in any form in anyone or group always takes a toll. It is far from the heart of God for those created in his image.

God bless America! I am glad to be an American! And even more grateful for the grace of God that blesses the world. Maybe, just maybe I can be part of the blessing! All because who will be gathered around the throne.

This! "...there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white..." (Rev 7. 9f)
