Making Peace

“Blessed are the peacemakers, because they will be called children of God.”

This beatitude applies to an Old Testament principle about making peace with others (Ps. 37:37; Is. 32:17-18).

It is also a principle in the Old Testament that peace is made with God when atonement is made (See Lev. 4:26-35; Ezk. 15-17).

Jesus is the great ‘peacemaker’ because he made atonement. “Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we boast in the hope of the glory of God.” (Rom. 5:1-2)

Our peace with God through Christ’s atonement is the beginning of making peace with others.

Who is wise and understanding among you? Let them show it by their good life, by deeds done in the humility that comes from wisdom. But if you harbor bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast about it or deny the truth. Such “wisdom” does not come down from heaven but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic. For where you have envy and selfish ambition, there you find disorder and every evil practice. But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure; then peace-loving, considerate, submissive, full of mercy and good fruit, impartial and sincere. Peacemakers who sow in peace reap a harvest of righteousness. (James 3:13-18)
