“Winning as Parents”

Listen, my son, to your father’s instruction and do not forsake your mother’s teaching.

They will be a garland to grace your head and a chain to adorn your neck.

(Proverbs 1:8-9 NIV)

The ancient Greek runner stood in victory with garland upon his head. The months of training, self-discipline, and listening carefully to his coach’s instructions had finally paid off in winning the event.

The young man smiled as he watched his father play with his infant son. His father seemed to be so much wiser than ever on this day as he too was smiling with pride in the presence of his son and grandson. It was as if they both stood together on the victor’s stand with the hard earned prize in hand.
