Morning!

Good morning friends! It's a quiet Sunday morning on the porch with a good cup of coffee. With every passing moment the sky becomes lighter. The heavens declare the God of God (Ps. 19.1). The earth is still this morning. Only the sounds of birds singing. The squirrels have yet to scurry in the trees and along our fence. Spring is emerging at just the right time. It happens at just the right time all my life. Yours too.

The Psalmist declares—"Be still and know that I am God" (46.10). The heavens declare the glory of God the God. The rhythm of the sun, moon and stars testify to the provision and care of God. Nature is ordered by the God of the universe-the God of the Bible. Mystery abounds. But there is enough evidence to know that that which is created has a creator.

While typing this I looked up as the sky is accented by the anticipation of the sun. Again, the rhythm of God is constant.

"Lord, when I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and stars that you have established; what are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals, that you care for them?" (Ps 8.3-4).

Thank you Lord! "O LORD, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth" (Ps 8.9).

It's a good day to be still!!!!!!

Blessings, GDK
