Open Hands

I am praying for some friends right now going through the dark valley of sorrow, disappointment and in need of help and hope—for the Lord to intervene. I cannot fix them or myself right now.

Sometimes, the only prayers we can pray are short.

Life happens. Some days disappointment oozes out of the pores of our being. AND, words won't come.

I know you know what I mean.

Your mind is consumed.
Your heart is racing.
Your spirit is overwhelmed.

So, the only things you can say to your soul are:

Lord, help!
Lord, give me strength!
Lord, get me through this moment!
Lord, relieve my pain!
Lord, forgive me!
Lord, you promised . . .

It's okay to cry out to the Lord. Briefly. Consistently. Desperately. Until the storm passes by.

In Christ, through the power of the Holy Spirit, the worst things are not the last things.

You can get through this day!
