Godly Behavior

Given our cultural chaos at so many levels—socially, politically, economically, as well as business, health and education this is where I stand.

Because I follow Jesus Christ there is a desperate need for gospel eyes, ears, hands and feet. It is one thing to know the Bible, hear about love down at church and come Monday, forget that the gospel is way of life and thinking the faith calls us to live a certain way and do something to the glory of God.

Not mad. Just sad. All from the gospel that is far more robust in its implications than myself and way too many church people discern and live.

Following Jesus Christ does calm the storm (See Matthew 8. It begins with me!)

LORD, give me the eyes, ears, hands and feet of Jesus with kingdom behavior.
